Mike Vieau, Superintendent of Schools, discussed Board Appreciation, Board Members were thanked for their service to the district. It is a thankless job, but the board have always done what is best for students; Return to Learn - So far there has been good return to school since returning January 11th. There have been a few quarantines and one classroom is remote learning. student achievement data will continue to be looked at, and plans will be developed to address learning loss; 2nd Semester – Schedules have been worked out to fit the incoming students, with a large percentage of students returning. Thanks to principals and counselors, especially Danielle Pomaville, there are still manageable numbers in the classrooms, with the majority of classes in the district under 25 students; Vaccinations - currently working with the Bay County Health Department to obtain vaccines for our staff, 2 clinics are scheduled this week for the first round of the Moderna Vaccine. State Budget Update - The most recent consensus revenue conference at the state has indicated that the school aid fund is in better shape than predicted. This is a positive sign, hopefully the foundation allowance will not be prorated next year when the federal dollars go away. Information regarding the state budget was presented.

Administrators had an opportunity to present reports. Kris McLavy, Business Director, presented on the 2020-2021 Budget Amendment. Kyle Woodruff, Middle/High School Principal, presented on PSAT/SAT/NMSQT scores for the district. Duane VanDrese, Middle/High School Assistant Principal, reported that due to state mandates athletic
